

From: info@safecityhyattsville.org
Date: Mon, December 29, 2008 11:42

Subject: Crime Alert - Burglaries

During the late morning hours of Sunday, December 28, 2008, two homes in University Hills were burglarized by unknown suspects. One of the burglaries occurred in the 3400 blk of Stanford Street with the suspect(s) entering through a rear window. In the other incident, a home in the 3400 blk of Purdue Street was broken into with entry gained through the rear basement door.

Anyone with information pertaining to either of these crimes is urged to call the Hyattsville City Police Department at 301-985-5060. In addition, citizens are reminded to report any suspicious persons or activity in their neighborhoods.